Death of Detention Center Inmate

(North Charleston, SC) This morning, just before 1:30 a.m., Charleston County sheriff's deputies responded to a report of an unresponsive male inmate at the Sheriff Al Cannon Detention Center. Medical personnel, suspecting a heart attack, began life saving measures on the inmate. He was transported to a hospital. Deputies were advised shortly thereafter that he had passed away. Per protocol, the Sheriff's Office requested SLED to investigate the matter. The Coroner's Office will release the individual's identity.
